

Paul Westermayer   viola

After graduating from the Zurich University of the Arts, he won the competition sponsored by the Kiwanis Foundation in Switzerland. He has been active as a guest violist with the Zurich Tonhalle Orchestra and major orchestras within Switzerland. Additionally, he excels in chamber music, collaborating with prominent ensembles such as the European String Quartet, the Bernina String Quartet, Ilios String Quartet, Schweizer Octet, and participating as a key member in events like the Lucerne Festival.

With a deep understanding of Japanese culture and arts, he is an enthusiast of Japan and regularly visits to perform while also contributing to the development of young musicians. Born in New Zealand, he holds Swiss citizenship.

In 2024, he established the Westermayer Music & Arts Association as a public interest corporation and assumed the role of representative for SeetalClassics Tokyo.